A Note from Mike

'SOMEDAY' IS IN SIGHT

Many of our customers that I've known throughout the years have started asking me when I might be retiring. I would chuckle and say "someday".

Well, This year I have made a commitment to start the process slowly. My goal this season is to work a bit less, and let some of our team members, who have already stepped up over the years, take on more responsibilities.

This includes our store and sales manager Karrol, who most of you know if you've visited the store over the past decade. She has taken over retail operations, along with spa sales and in-ground pool sales, and is doing a fantastic job.

Ruben, who many pool customers have seen out on the job, has been our lead technician, and is celebrating his 20th year at Aqua Pools. He will be taking over our weekly pool and spa maintenance department, and will soon be running the entire service department. Ruben will be available to help customers with technical questions and issues in the store from time to time as well.

Jason will continue to work in the store helping customers with their water chemistry and showing them how best to care for the pools and spas. He's our robotic pool cleaner expert too. Additionally, he will be in charge of inventory and management of our 3 warehouses.

Emilee welcomed Tommy, the newest member of our Aqua Pools team, to the world this winter. He'll be cleaning spas in no time. Emilee will be here part time this season helping customers in the store and managing our social media accounts.

My daughter Taylor moved back from Oregon last year to help out in the store, and is now working full time with us. Often accompanied by our shop dog, Brooke, Taylor is splitting her focus between the store and assisting our long-time office manager Kim, who is back for her 21st year with the company.

Our skilled technicians are back again this year, including Steve, who will be making this his 23rd, and final, year with Aqua Pools. Many of you have requested Steve as your service technician over the years, so we're grateful he's been here for so long to help mentor numerous newly hired technicians. We're lucky to have him here for one last season.

So, my plan is all in order. Retirement soon. Maybe I'll be the store greeter some day if they let me.

Here's to another pool season!
